What to expect?

Methodology & The first day

Courses are designed to reach to students of every level. It is essential to know your needs and expectations from the course. For that reason, you will have a free level test in IH in order to assign you to an appropriate level. (Please contact Spanish Department for level test timetable).

Courses are combined with both theoretical and practical information that are necessary to maximize your learning necessary for your daily life in Madrid. Classes are based on a two-way communication approach where students will receive feedback from their professors while they study.

Once you are enrolled, you will benefit from the various resources of IH Madrid such as internet, library, multimedia room, cafetería and a welcome package that will make your getting around the city easier. Also, with your IH student card, you will get discounts in certain museums, shops and bars.

Studying in IH means you will be highly involved in the language and everything around it. For this reason, IH Club organizes several activities every week where you will be able to practice your Spanish, experience the culture out on the street and meet with new people. During your studies, you will be encouraged to communicate in Spanish both in class and outside.

So, make sure to check the "activity panel" to discover something new about Madrid. Now that you are in Madrid, let's speak Spanish!

UNIVERSITY PROGRAMS	ADVANCED PLACEMENT SPANISH LANGUAGE (AP)	GENERAL CERTIFICATE OF SECONDARY EDUCATION (GCSE)
IH Madrid has a long lasting experience in arranging summer courses and semester courses that allow students to receive direct credit transfer to North American universities and colleges. Please consult to Spanish Department.	Our Spanish Program and Literature Programs for High School students are sponsored by the Education Office of the Embassy of Spain in Washington D.C. The goals of the Spanish Language Program and the Spanish Literature Program are to help U.S. high school students aged 15-19 improve their Spanish language skills and their knowledge of Spanish literature, respectively, in preparation for the exams.	The course is designed especially for UK students who are between 14 and 17 to prepare them for the GCSE exam. The course consists of 20 hours of classes per week with the supervision of native Spanish speaker professors. Students are encouraged to participate actively in order to develop confidence in their oral communication skills that are necessary for the exam.

Holidays and Fiestas

If you are in Spain, live like a Spaniard!

Spain is not only known for its siestas but also its fiestas which are an inseparable part of Spanish culture. Although many fiestas are celebrated nationally, there are also special celebrations and holidays in different regions of Spain. Here is a list of some important holidays when IH Madrid will be closed*. So you are not missing any classes! Save the dates and experience these unique events personally during your stay.

In Madrid, everyday is a unique story! Enjoy!

“Calendar of events”

• January 1: New Year's Day (National)...Happy New Year! If you are in Spain on the 31st of December, you have to join in the celebrations in Puerta del Sol and make your wish while eating 12 grapes at midnight with each ring of the bell!

• January 6: Kings Day (National) ...Most important day on the kids' calendar when Christmas gifts are exchanged.

• April 1 & 2: Easter (National)...Easter without eggs! Instead there are religious processions that take place in every city where hooded men and barefoot women parade with religious figures.

• October 12: Hispanic Day (National)...The day when Columbus discovered America is celebrated not only in Spain but also in Latin America.

• November 1: All Saints Day (National)

• December 6: Constitution Day (National)

☞ For complete list of holidays in Spain please visit the website!

*IMPORTANT! ! IH Madrid will be closed on the stated dates. IH Madrid does not charge for classes cancelled due to public holidays. There may be cancellations due to other public holidays. In that case, IH Madrid will organize alternative timetables in order to recuperate the cancelled classes.
